CONVENTION CENTER

This week the Convention Center was host to the Oregon Association of Municipal Recorders (OAMR) September 14-17, 2015 with 125 attendees. The Convention Center will host the Women in Recovery Convention from September 18-20, 2015, with 650 attendees.

The convention center is scheduled for a busy October ahead with back to back events booked, and only a few empty days left on the calendar.

LIBRARY

Teen Tuesday is back and kids can hang out, get to know each other, and devour some delicious snacks at the Seaside Library Malt Shop, on Tuesday, September 22, 2015 at 3:30 p.m. Our Youth Services Librarian, Marian, has some great events planned in the upcoming days for the teens of the North Coast.

Preschool Story Time on Wednesday, September 23, at 10:00 a.m., and Kinder Story Time at 3:00 p.m. the same day, will be learning all about colors. At this event they may be able to answer the age old question: What's black and white, black and white, and black and white? Give me a nickel and I'll tell ya. OK, here's the answer for free. A panda bear rolling down a hill. There's fun to be had at the Seaside Library for kids of all ages.

Break out your hiking gear, and join us on Thursday, September 24, 2015 at 7:00 p.m. as we welcome Connie Soper, author of "Exploring the Oregon Coast Trail." If you have taken even a short walk on any beach in Oregon, you have been on the Oregon Coast Trail. This wonderfully scenic and diverse trail extends nearly 400 miles from the Columbia River to the California border, with over half those miles on sand. "Exploring the Oregon Coast Trail" provides the information you need to complete the entire trail, or to enjoy segments of it as day hikes. This book also provides insights on chapters on Oregon's coastal history that make hiking the trail a special and unique experience.
