

Vision Statement

The Seaside Community, using an identified network of land and water resources, will establish a Necanicum Estuary Natural History Park that will help maintain ecological functions, provide appropriate public access, and support public engagement in the context of the North Coast Region and its cultural history.