CITY HALL

SEASIDE VISIONING 2034 SURVEY:

Last November, the City of Seaside and Seaside City Council launched a 20-year visioning project titled, "Seaside 2034: Building a Bridge to our Future." A critical aspect for the early development of this project is to ask all community members to complete a short survey. It should take you no more than 2-3 minutes and provide invaluable assistance to the process: <http://bit.ly/SeasideSurvey>. Please also consider forwarding onto your family and friends. Thank you!

The convention center hired Russell Construction to upgrade the second floor Men's and Women's restrooms, scheduled work will include installing new wall tile and stall dividers. Estimated time to complete this project is March 16-23, 2014.

LIBRARY

Like movies? Like Ken Kesey? Like Paul Newman? If so, mark your calendar for Thursday, March 20, 2014, at 7:00 p.m. Author Matt Love will be at the library speaking about his book "Suddenly A Great Movie: Paul Newman, Ken Kesey, and the filming of the Great Oregon Novel". In June 1970, the biggest movie star in the world traveled to the Oregon Coast to film "Suddenly A Great Notion".

POLICE DEPARTMENT

What ensued was a wild working vacation between Hollywood and Oregonians involving beer, sex, scotch, loggers, beaches, and perhaps a spectacularly vandalized pool table. Interested?

We had a huge sleepover at the library this past week, but strangely enough, there was no bad language, insolent behavior, loud talking, running, leaping, or frivolity of any kind. The 12 participants were model citizens, so much so that they didn't have any staff supervision whatsoever. Has insanity taken over the library? Fear not, it was our first annual "Stuffed Animal Sleepover" and kids brought their favorite stuffed pal for a night out. One of creatures ate a piece of my chocolate cake.

The library is partnering with The North Coast Land Conservancy this year and we are co-hosting the "Listening to the Land" series. On Wednesday, March 19, 2014, at 6:00 p.m., the program will be "Painting at the Ocean's Edge" with local watercolor artist Jeff Hull.

MERCHANT ALERT - Public Utility Scam:
In the past week, the Seaside Police Department has received two complaints concerning a phone scam where the caller claims to be from the power company. The caller tells the person that they have exceeded their power usage and if they don't pay a certain amount of money now, their power will be shut off. Both receiving parties asked enough questions that alerted them that this was a scam so no money was lost. According to the power company, they do not make phone calls involving past due accounts or any problems with billing. The Seaside Police Department warns all citizens and businesses to be wary of any phone calls asking for money of any kind unless you know who you are dealing with or have dealt with them in the past. Scams of this type will take many forms and claiming to be from the power company is just one of them. If you receive a call of this type where money is being demanded, never provide banking or credit card information. If you are unsure, then call the company yourself to determine if the request for money or information is legitimate. Don't become a victim.
