CONVENTION CENTER

Greetings from the Convention Center staff! The Kiwanis Club of Seaside held its annual pancake feed Tuesday, April 5, 2016. Proceeds from this annual community fundraiser go to benefit youth activities in Clatsop County.

Kiwanis sponsors the Key Club at Seaside High School and the Builders Club at Broadway Middle School.

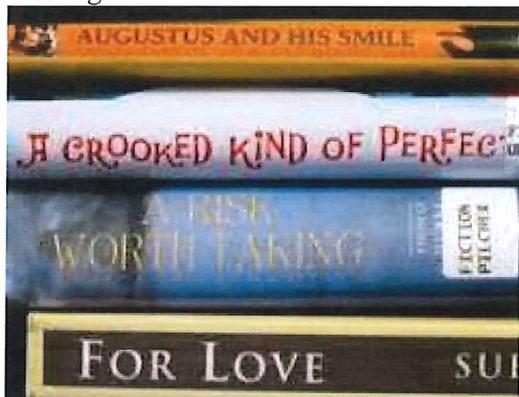

The Kiwanis Club has supported other programs and organizations, including Camp Kiwanilong, college scholarships, Seaside Kids Inc., Clatsop County CASA, backpack programs and more.

Sober in Seaside moved into the convention center Wednesday, April 6, 2016, to host its 34th annual North Coast Roundup. The event kicked off with a potluck Thursday, April 7, 2016, and the event runs through Sunday, April 10, 2016. The North Coast Roundup is one of the largest – if not the largest – events hosted at the Convention Center. As many as 1,500 people are expected during the weekend. Their schedule includes AA meetings, speakers, a comedy show and more.

Also of note, we have received some very positive feedback regarding last weekend's Oregon Ghost Conference, which was using our facility for the first time and is scheduled to return next year!

LIBRARY

Teen Tuesday is going all erudite on April 12, 2016 at 3:30 p.m. Our intrepid youth will be creating Book Spine Poems by stacking different types of books and creating verses, rhymes, sonnets, limericks, and epic prose out of the titles on the spines of said books. Will we discover another Longfellow or Alfred Lord Tennyson? Or, will our Youth Librarian, Marian; be forced to endure some unsavory offerings.

I've got the collywobbles and I don't mean to bloviate about it, but the codswallop that you will hear about people who are anencephalous has been greatly exaggerated. If you know what some of the above words mean you are a candidate for The Night of All Knowledge Trivia Tournament on April 13, 2016, at 6:00 p.m.

If you come, try to wear something with furbelow and by all means invite a gaberlunzie that is sialoquent.

It's the best day ever at Preschool Storytime at 10:00 a.m. and Kinder Storytime at 3:00 p.m., because it is Dinosaur Day! Kids can hear stories, do crafts, and generally geek out on this diverse group of animals that first appeared during the Triassic period 231.4 million years ago. Has anyone ever thought of a dinosaur theme park with real dinos? Maybe it could be called Triassic Park. I'm pretty sure that nothing could go wrong.
