LIBRARY

WOW, can you believe it Gertrude? The Seaside Library just delivered three new novels, a Jimmy Cagney movie, and an audio book about Thomas Jefferson, right to my door. Maude, you've got to be kidding! On your fixed income how could you afford to pay for that service? Well Gertie, it's free because of the Words on Wheels (WOW) program that the library offers to folks who have trouble getting around. I love to read Maude, and that Jimmy Cagney is the bee's knees. How can I sign-up for Words on Wheels? Just call the library, Gert, and ask for that nice boy, Alex, or that bald fellow Jon, and they will get you all set up lickety-split. WOW!!!

Teen Tuesday and Kinder Storytime are again canceled for the week, but Preschool Storytime is on like Donkey Kong. There's white stuff falling on kids one and all—If it gets in your eye it may cause you to bawl—But one things certain and this you must know—Storytime kids will learn all about snow. Wednesday, December 30, 2015 at 10:00 a.m. I have a rhyming addiction, so My New Year's resolution is no more poems in the city newsletter. Stay tuned in sixteen—And see what I mean. Gotta stop!!!!
