LIBRARY

Teen Tuesday is back from its short hiatus and they are ready to rumblelllllllll--on Tuesday, March 1, 2016 at 3:30 p.m. Here's a clue that will help you guess what they will be up to. "There was a farmer had a dog and _____ was his name-o." If you know the name of the dog then you can guess what our intrepid youths will be playing. No money will change hands at this event but I think the winner will get to visit la maison du chocolat. Is that song stuck in your head yet?

Preschool Storytime at 10:00 a.m. and Kinder Storytime at 3:00 p.m. will be celebrating the birthday of one of the most illustrious doctors our world has ever seen. One of his quotes to live by is "I like nonsense; it wakes up the brain cells." This doc didn't cure the common cold—Or negotiate a famous truce—He wasn't a surgeon or cleric you see—This doc went by the name of Seuss. Come celebrate with us on March 2, 2016.

“Four Calligraphers At Play With Twenty-Six Letters” is the theme of the new art show at the library. The exhibition will present calligraphy by local artists Kay Aya, Bev Gilbertson, Rebecca Read, and John Rippey. The show will be in the Community Room and foyer and will hang from March 8, 2016 through April 26, 2016.

CONVENTION CENTER

The convention center will be host to the Seaside Jazz Festival this weekend February 25-28, 2016! The festivities began Thursday evening with a Kick-off Party at the Seaside Elks. The main festival starts Friday afternoon and runs through Sunday afternoon. Bands will be playing at the Convention Center (3 different stages), Seaside Elks, and Best Western. The Lighthouse Jazz Society is offering a free shuttle service to transport people between the various venues. The festival will be selling tickets on-site starting at 10:00 am Friday at the Convention Center. Tickets (badges) are $95 for the full event. In addition, single day tickets are available and vary in price.
