JEREMY GOLDSMITH – My Time in Gambia

If you've never met Jeremy, this is a chance to know what makes him tick. Jeremy has spent two years with the City of Seaside as the RARE intern and has worked on everything from the Tsunami Preparedness program to the Mill Ponds Park to the Food Bank.....and so many other things. Jeremy's tenure is up in July, 2015. The community is about to realize how much energy he brought to everything he worked on. The City is going to miss him a lot. Come see him at the Seaside Library.

Take a trip to West Africa on Saturday, June 6, 2015 at 1:00 p.m. as Jeremy Goldsmith presents "My Time In Gambia." Jeremy was a Peace Corps volunteer in the diverse third world country commonly known as the "Smiling Coast of West Africa." There will be a slide show and you will hear some great stories about the kindness of the Gambian people, what "smalling" means, and the life of a Peace Corps volunteer in a far off land.

Kids can learn about all kinds of different grub at a special "Food" edition of Preschool Story Time on Wednesday, June 10, 2015, at 10:00 a.m. Waffles burgers and crab—Spinach it tastes kind-a-bad-- Ice cream is such a good treat—But please don't make me eat quiche.

Hattie told Mattie
About a thing she saw
Had two big horns
And a wooly jaw
If you know the name of the song these lyrics belong to, and the group who sang them, then you should boogie on down to The Night of All Knowledge Trivia Tournament on Wednesday, June 10, 2015 at 6:00 p.m. Is that song stuck in your head yet?

Try Stand Up Paddle Boarding on the Local Lakes!

Want to try a peaceful paddle that helps build your core muscles? Try out Stand Up Paddleboarding! I had tried SUP a couple times before but still found myself a little wobbly getting out there. Once you get in the rhythm, you will find it is a peaceful way to travel down a lake or river. Some even take SUP out to the Seaside Cove. Since that is beyond my skill level I stick with the local lakes! I recommend a wetsuit on cold or rainy days to stay dry and warm. -Esther Moberg
