LIBRARY

Lego Club is rollin into the library on Saturday, March 19, 2016 at 1:00 p.m. Kids and their parents can have a blast building, eye poppin, effulgent, equanimous, and fecund, works of staggering beauty. Or, you can just build a little kitty. Sorry for being so garrulous.

I know you don't want to hear it! But, we have to tell you anyway. Teen Tuesday, on March 22, is canceled. It will be back and going strong with some new hijinks and shenanigans on Tuesday, March 29. If you see marauding bands of teens wanting to make smoothies, and crepes' or play chess and lawn checkers then please direct them to the library and we will handle the fallout. Don't look them directly in the eye! They might stampede!

It's all about Bunnies and Chicks at Preschool Storytime at 10:00 a.m. and Kinder Storytime at 3:00 p.m. Kids can learn all about our cuddly, furry friends, do a springtime craft, and have a boatload of fun while learning some interesting tidbits about a group of their favorite creatures. The cuteness will commence on March 23rd.

CONVENTION CENTER

Greetings from the Convention Center Staff! It's been an eventful week at the facility so far, and we still have lots to look forward to.

The convention center hosted the Peerpocalypse March 14-16, 2016. The Peerpocalypse, is an event put on by Mental Health America of Oregon. The conference brings together leaders, emerging leaders, innovators, and peers who want to become more involved in the peer community and share information, skills, and experience. Despite a few incidents (including a woman having a seizure in the lobby, which was a reminder of how fortunate we are to have a volunteer firefighter on our staff), we were told how much the group loves meeting in Seaside and that they plan to come back.

The convention center will be hosting the seventh annual Pouring at the Coast this weekend, March 18-19, 2016. The event is presented by the Seaside Chamber of Commerce in partnership with the Seaside Brewing Company. The Oregon Coast Brewer's Dinner, a five-course meal prepared by Seaside High School's culinary arts program under the leadership of Astoria chef Chris Holen, is Friday March 18, 2016. The Craft Beer Festival, featuring more than 30 breweries, live music, vendors, and food, is Saturday, March 19, 2016 from 3:00pm to 8:00 pm, and is open to participants 21 and older. The Oregon Coast Homebrewer's Competition and People's Choice Competition also will be held on Saturday. It should be a fun weekend!
