LIBRARY

Beginning March 8th 2016 and running through April 26th 2016 the library presents an exhibition of calligraphy by local calligraphers Kay Aya, Bev Gilbertson, Rebecca Read, and John Rippey. The show is titled "Four Calligraphers at Play with Twenty Six Letters" and will hang in the Community Room and foyer. The simple definition of calligraphy comes from the Greek calli (beautiful) and graphien (writing). Calligraphy is an art that has roots in all cultures and usually refers to beautifully formed words, written directly with a pen or brush.

Have you ever made fruit smoothies with about 20 teenagers? Our intrepid Youth Services Librarian, Marian, will be doing just that at Teen Tuesday on March 8, 2016, at 3:30 pm. Can Marian survive the melee? Will the Scotch Gard in the Community Room carpet stand up to this test? Does Marian have enough shampoo to get the fruit smoothie out of her hair when the lid to the blender blows off? Stay tuned for the answers to these, and many other pressing questions at Days of Our Teenage Lives.

Get down on Tuesday, with “T is for Turtle” at Preschool Storytime at 10:00 a.m. and Kinder Storytime at 3:00 p.m. Kids can learn all about our shelled reptile friends of the order Testudines’ whose earliest known members date from 150 million years ago.

It’s that time of the month. Y’all know what I’m talking about. You’d be better off using a “brolly” in a “haboob” than missing The Night of All Knowledge Trivia Tournament, on March 9, 2016, at 6:00 p.m. If you know what a “brolly” or a “haboob” is you’ve got a great chance of winning.

CONVENTION CENTER

Hello from the Convention Center Staff! This week, the convention center was host to the Oregon Chapter of the American Fisheries Society for their annual meeting, March 1-4, 2016, which marks the 52nd anniversary of the chapter. The group is holding its annual meeting in Seaside for the first time; we hope they had an excellent experience and decide to come back!

The convention center is scheduled to host the Sunset Park & Recreation Foundation and Seaside Rotary Foundation for the ninth annual “A Sweet Affaire” fundraiser, scheduled for Sunday, March 6, 2016, from 2:00 pm to 4:30 pm. The event – will feature live music, treats, signature appetizers, wine and beer samplings.

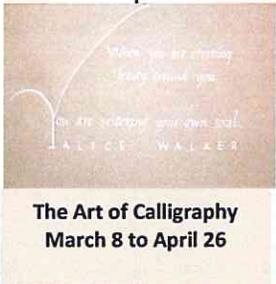

“A Sweet Affaire” funds scholarships that enable community members to access the recreation district’s programs, regardless of financial situation. Rotary proceeds benefit various school and community projects. Tickets are available online and at the Sunset Pool. The Convention Center

Staff would like to extend a warm welcome to our newest staff member! Katherine Lacaze who joined us on March 1, 2016, as our Office Assistant. She has been working the last few years as a reporter for the Seaside Signal and the Daily Astorian, and we are excited to have her on board here at the Convention Center. If you haven’t had a chance to meet her yet, please drop by to say hello!
