SPECIAL OLYMPICS

LAW ENFORCEMENT TORCH RUN

“POLAR PLUNGE”

On Monday November 9, 2015 a large group of high school students from around the state attended a leadership conference in Seaside. The Special Olympics Law Enforcement Torch Run organizer held a Polar Plunge on the beach in an effort to raise awareness of the fund raiser in hopes that the students would return to their communities and start a Polar Plunge program themselves.

The Seaside Police and Fire Department's assisted with the event coordination, set up and safety for the participants. The approx. 120 students involved raised over $4,000 for the Special Olympics Law Enforcement Torch Run program.
