LIBRARY

Huckleberry Finn, James and the Giant Peach, Diary of Ann Frank, To Kill A Mockingbird, Captain Underpants, The Old Man and the Sea, Harry Potter, and too many others to name, have been banned at different times in our country. The library will be observing Banned Books Week, September 27, 2015, through October 3, 2015, to celebrate our freedom of speech and expression. Drop in, read a banned book, grab a pin for your lapel, and let your free flag fly.

Our annual quilt show is going up on September 25, 2015, and running through December 1, 2015. This year some of Clatsop County's best quilters will be presenting "Quilting for Special Occasions" and their offerings are amazing.

Teens can go crazy with the Wii, play Blokus, Apples to Apples, Clue, and a plethora of other diversions at the Teen Tuesday Game Day on Tuesday, September 29, 2015 at 3:30. Snacks will be served at this event and ear plugs will be available for any adults in the general vicinity.

On Wednesday, September 30, 2015, Preschool Storytime at 10:00 a.m. and Kinder Storytime at 3:00 p.m. will be going to the dogs. Whether it be the loveable mangy mongrel with different colored eyes, or the foo, foo, little Yorkie Terrier that travels in your purse, it's all about the canine at our Dog Day Extravaganza.

CONVENTION CENTER

This week the convention center was host to the International Association of Arson Investigators (IAAI) with 120 attendees from September 21-24, 2015. The convention center is scheduled to host the River of Life Fellowship 30th Anniversary with 250 attendees from September 25-27, 2015.
